The Work of His hands all around me

As he works in me His plan,

Here I stand, all that I am

Every flower and tree and the rolling sea

Is the work of God above

From the farthest star to who we are,

And He longs to be at work in me,

Within my heart

He had come for me, to set me free,

For He took the loss, upon the cross

Nailed down for me,
F/C C F
That I forever would be the work of His hands.
